| Hello everyone! Here are some ideas for learning at home. Please don't feel you have to do everything - these are just suggestions. The most important thing is to listen to your child and find out what they're interested in. Then follow their interests, this will be much more fun than trying to make them do something they aren't interested in. At this stage, play and talk are the most important. We'd love to hear what you're up to so please email me pictures or if you have any questions! | Health & Wellbeing Try some Yoga this week, Cosmic Yoga on YouTube or even take it in turns to lead a 'class,' doing different stretches. Can you be as tall as a giraffe, or small and round like a hedgehog? Explore different ways to move your body!  | Number and shape  Learn the song 1,2,3,4,5 once I caught a fish alive – https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9ir_l7qTiZ4 Can you practice counting to ten? You could make your own fishing game, and count how many fish you can catch!  | The world Find out about different occupations, what jobs do people have? Can you look online at pictures of jobs and see which ones you recognise? A baker, a firefighter? What do you want to be when you grow up? Draw a picture or even make a costume. Role play this job, what does it involve? Can you make some resources to support your play, e.g. set up a vets or a doctors. |
| | Expressive art and Design Use things around the house to explore sound and rhythm. Can you bang a pattern, can you make loud and quiet noises? Can you make up your own song? | Fine motor skills Make some playdough from 1 cup of flour and splash of oil and water, just keep mixing until you get the right consistency. Use your big muscles to knead the dough and your small muscles to shape the dough.
