We have had a lovely week. Thank you to everyone for attending books and breakfast, the children really enjoyed sharing stories with you.

We dressed up for World Book Day, as the theme was read your way we wore our favourite clothes.

We have been learning about signs of spring and noticing that the mornings and evenings are a little lighter. Some children chose to do beautiful watercolour paintings of daffodils. We are also keeping an eye on our broad beans, they are starting to grow – how exciting!
